WILL GO TO OCEAN VIEW.

HAPPY HOWITZERS TO LEAVE US.

They Will be Royally Entertained by the Norfolk Artillery Blues, and Will Take Part in a Parade_Those Going.

When the Queen of Night rises from her couch of ocean waves this evening her effulgency will beam, glitter and dance upon the waves of Ocean View, and along the beach will the merry cannoneers of the Richmond Howitzers disport themselves with the elasticity of kids or with the frolicsomeness of mermaids. They leave this heated congregation of brick and mortar this afternoon on the south-bound train leaving here at 2:58 o'clock. No organization ever left Richmond with brighter anticipations of enjoyment save perhaps the artillerymen when they sped from our midst to be the guests of the Cres-

EXTENSIVE PREPARATIONS.

For weeks past at the armory the most ex-For weeks past at the armory the most ex-tensive preparations have been arranged and completed, and every detail has been and now is in competent hands for a most successful sneampment at Ocean View. The Gatling-gun and one of the 3-inch rifles is already there, and the white-winged tents, systemati-cally arranged, occupy places on the beach near the hotel.

At the armory last evening the last of the baggage was being arranged, and four chests stood waiting to be filled with equipments. Overcoats, full-dress uniforms, helmets and other paraphernalia appropriate to soldiers were being stored in the boxes, and Sergeant J. S. Eubank had his hands well employed.

By Sunday the cannoneers expect to have in camp about eighty men. Quite a number who are unable to go to-day will leave Richmond as soon as business permits them, and on Saturday a large contingent will go down and join their comrades.

BOYALLY ENTERTAINED.

The Howitzers will be royally entertained by the Norfolk Light Artillery Blues and the Grymes Battery of Portsmouth. The former company were always the recipients of marked attention from the Howitzers whenever they visited Richmond and they are eager to reciprocate the many courtesies. As a consequence a hearty, cordial welcome will e accorded the men from Richmond and during their stay at the seashore a banquet will be tendered them by their Norfolk iriends. The Grymes battery will next week celebrate the first anniversary of their organization, and a parade, participated in by all three commands, will take place in Portsmouth. The same evening a banquet will take place.

A ball will be tendered the Howitzers by the Nortolk Blues at Virginia Beach and the Norfolk Bines at Virginia Beach, and with the many and varied attractions always to be found at the seashore it is safe to prediet that the Howitzers will have a royal good

THE SUICIDE'S FUNERAL.

Some Believe That Wharton's Mind Was Unbalanced on Tuesday Afternoon,

The funeral of the late John G. Wharton, who committed suicide at his home, on the Mechanicsville turnpike, Tuesday afternoon took place yesterday.

Just before the deceased committed the dust before the deceased committed the cash act he was heard to say that he did not make enough to support his baby. He was employed by the City Railway Company, and I heard yesterday on excellent authority that be always drew about $12,50 a week. He was considered by Superintendent Selden one of the brightest men in the service, and was popular with all of the men. The superin-tendent would have promoted him in a few months.

Months.

About a week ago Mr. Wharton had a row near the Old market and received several bruses about the head. It is thought by many that they unseitled his brain, and that he was in a fit of mental aberration when he killed himself Tuesday. Certainly no one that day hed given him cause to feel hadly if killed himself Tuesday. Certainly no one that day had given him cause to feel badly if what his associates of the car line say is true.

The Almshouse

A sub-committee of the Committee on Streets and a sub-committee of the Commit-tee on Relief of the Poor met yesterday afternoon at the city almshouse for conference in regard to the grading of Hospital street be-tween Fifth and Second streets. The Committee on Relief of the Poor was represented by Messra Reeve, McDowell and Gibson. Colonel Cutshaw and Superintendent Carter, of the almshouse, were also present.

the establishing of a grade in conformity with the grade of the neighboring streets. He suggested a cut of fourteen feet at the highest point to secure a level grade or a cut of seven feet to obtain a slanting grade towards the east and west end of the street.

The committee were of the opinion that if either grade was agreed upon it would involve too heavy an expense to carry out the improvement and, on motion of Mr. Bahen. it was decided to report to the City Council that it was inexpedient at this time to establish the grade.

THE JAIL FULL OF NEGROES. Wholesale Arrests Being Made in Paducah. Cause of the Trouble.

PADUCAH, Kr., July 13.—It was to avenge the death of Charles Hill by lynching J. E. Randall, a white prisoner, that the mob of negroes assembled at the jail Monday night. While it is true that the negroes Tuesday night said they had assembled to protect the jail from an assault, an entirely different state of officers has leaked out. In examination of adairs has leaked out. An examination by the police revealed that they for sev-eral weeks have been receiving invoices of Winchester rifles from Cincinnati and that they have received a considerable number. At midnight everything was quiet. The members of the military company are resting on their arms ready to march at a moment's on their arms ready to march at a moment's notice. There are so many armed men on the streets that it reminds one of war times, and Paducah presents the appearance of a beleaguered city. The sheriff has seventy-five deputies on duty and the chief of police has 100 extra men patroling the town. Early last evening a body of armed negroes collected in a ravine beyond the Tennessee bridge. The marshal sent a squad of men to arrest them, and several shots were exchanged. The negroes retreated and escaped.

shots were exchanged. The negroes retreated and escaped.

The police force was busy all night arresting every negro found about the city, and the jail is full to overflowing. Most of them had arms of one kind or another. The city is in a tremor of excitement, expecting every moment that there will be some kind of an outbreak. The six dozen stands of arms ordered by the mayor arrived iron St. Louis last night, and to-day an armed body was set to work to disperse the negroes and arrest the leaders. The feeling has been very bitter, and nothing but the utmost prudence has prevented violence. Sheriff Stanley wired Governor Brown last evening that everything was quiet, but an outbreak was likely to occur at any moment.
